

2/A full day tour to Baalbeck and Zahle's Berdawni river

Dating far back as the 3000 BC, Baalbeck known as Heliopolis or the city of the sun during the time of Alexander the great reached its glory with the roman empire. Towering over the Bekaa valley known for its fertile land that served as the food reservoir for the roman empire, and a passage way between Rome and the eastern provinces. Lebanon's greatest Roman treasure, can be counted among the wonders of the ancient world. Walking between huge structures, you will marvel at the genius of the roman architecture that gave us monumental wonders like the Temple of Bacchus, one of the best kept roman temples in the world along with the temple of Venus the only round roman temple in the world and many more imposing edifices. Our guide will take you through these different sites giving you a feel of the life back in the days of Roman Glory and imperial power.

After the visit to baalbeck, we will take you to the jewel of the Bekaa valley, the city of Zahle. Famous for its world renowned wineries built by the French monks who brought their best grapes and with ht bekaa's rich soil and sun, produced many of the world's wines. Through the city passes the Berdawni river, a touristic landmark of Zahle, famous for the restaurants lining its banks giving you a great lunch experience where you will feast on the best Lebanese creations only a few feet from the river.
